----- DISTRICT OF SOUTH DAKOTA -----

SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RECOMMENDED FINDINGS ON REVOCATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

STACY DEAN REDDEST,

Defendant.

CASE NUMBER: CR. 03-40072

This matter came before the court for hearing upon the Petition to Revoke Supervised Release on Monday, April 10, 2006. The defendant appeared in person and by his counsel, Assistant Federal Public Defender Tim Langley, while the United States of America appeared by Assistant United States Attorney, Tom Wright. Based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing, I hereby make the following recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Findings of Fact

Defendant is on supervised release pursuant to General, Standard and Special Conditions of Supervised Release as contained in the Judgment in a Criminal Case filed on February 18, 2004 (Doc. 24).

Allegation Number 2:

A General Condition of the defendant's Conditions of Supervised Release required that "the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime."

Defendant admitted allegation number 2.

On October 29, 2005, at Wagner, South Dakota, the defendant committed the offense of Driving Under the Influence in violation of the General Conditions of Supervised Release.

Allegations Numbered 1, 3 and 4:

Allegations numbered 1, 3, and 4 were dismissed upon motion of the government and in the interests of justice.

Conclusions of Law

1. Failure to abide by the terms and conditions of supervised release provides a reasonable basis upon which to revoke supervised release.

2. Based upon the factual basis provided by the United States, the United States has proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has not met the conditions of his supervised release. See United States v. Cotroneo, 89 F.3d 510, 512 n.4 (8th Cir.), cert. denied 117 S.Ct. 533 (1996) and 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3).

3. After conversing with the defendant personally in open court, it is the finding of the court that the defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed admission, that the defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the admission, and that the admission is a knowing and voluntary plea supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense. It is, therefore, my report and recommendation that defendant's supervised release be revoked.

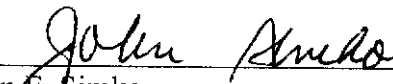

4. The United States Probation Office is hereby directed to prepare and submit to the United States District Court a supplemental pre-sentence investigation within twenty-one (21) days of the date of this report.

Notice to Parties

Any objections to these findings and conclusions must be served and filed within ten days of the date of service of this notice upon you. 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1). If no objections are filed, the district court may adopt, reject, or modify these findings and conclusions. Moreover, the court may impose an appropriate sentence based upon these findings and conclusions following a hearing.

Dated this 10 day of April, 2006.
